Dear Atem,

It has been a pleasure exploring opportunities to have you join us at pureIntegration. We believe that you have the right qualifications and potential to succeed with us!

It is my pleasure to offer you the position of DevOps Engineer / Senior Associate at pureIntegration. Your starting annual base salary will be $97,500.00 (or $4,062.50) per pay period, less applicable taxes and deductions) which is paid semi-monthly.

In addition, pureIntegration offers its employees a robust platform of health and welfare benefits. You will be eligible to participate in the company's 401(k) plan in which you will receive a 401k contribution matching 50% of the first 5% of the pay you contribute to the plan through salary deferral. As a pureIntegration employee you are entitled to 15 days of PTO ("Paid Time Off") and 10 paid holidays as well as the full range of health benefits (health, dental, vision, disability, and life insurance).

As a condition of employment, you will need to sign a confidentiality and non-solicitation agreement and agree to and successfully pass a background check and drug screening. During the period of your employment with pureIntegration, you will not knowingly disclose confidential information belonging to any third parties. pureIntegration is an employment-at-will company.

Within the first three days of employment, you are required by law to provide identification to your new employer that shows that you are legally eligible to work in the United States. Opportunities to flourish - in the short and long term - are excellent and your role will be meaningful in our success. We attach great importance to the professional development of all our people here, and I would like to think that you'd remain with us as we grow, to take advantage of these opportunities.

We all feel strongly that you will be able to make a significant contribution to the company and look forward to working with you. Please sign below to accept this offer.

If you have any questions about our offer, feel free to call me personally at 703-707-9684.

Yours sincerely,

Greg Stayin
Chief Operations Officer

CONFIDENTIALITY, INVENTION ASSIGNMENT AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

THIS CONFIDENTIALITY, INVENTION ASSIGNMENT AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT (hereafter "Agreement") is entered into by and between Pure Integration, LLC (hereafter "pureIntegration") and Atem Godwill (hereafter "Employee") as of the date signed below, as a condition of Employee's at-will employment with pureIntegration:

1. Restrictions on Outside Employment. To avoid any conflict of interest while employed by pureIntegration, Employee may not work for himself or herself or for another business or individual in any other business, enterprise, consultancy, service or venture without the express written consent of pureIntegration. Such restriction does not apply to volunteer or charitable activities.

2. Copyrights, Patents and Trade Secrets.

- a. Prior Inventions and Copyright Works. Employee represents that, except as disclosed in a separate letter or exhibit attached hereto and provided to pureIntegration at the time this Agreement is executed, Employee does not own or have any rights to any writings, original works of authorship, inventions, developments, concepts, improvements, designs, discoveries, ideas, trademarks, work product, trade secrets or other intellectual property, whether tangible or intangible, which were made by Employee prior to Employee's employment with pureIntegration, which Employee wishes to retain as Employee's own and against any claims of ownership by pureIntegration.
- b. pureIntegration has the legal obligation to operate consistent with all applicable contracts and government regulations. In order to ensure compliance with all contractual and other legal obligations, Employee shall promptly disclose to pureIntegration all material created, composed, made, written, discovered, conceived or acquired by Employee during the course of Employee's employment with pureIntegration, whether related to Employee's duties or otherwise, including, without limitation, all writings, original works of authorship, inventions, developments, concepts, improvements, designs, discoveries, ideas, trademarks, work product, trade secrets or other intellectual property, whether tangible or intangible ("Inventions and Copyright Work"). Employee agrees that all Inventions and Copyright Work, including all copyrights, any extension or renewals, and all related work, shall be considered, in the event it is copyrightable subject matter, a work made for hire and the exclusive property of pureIntegration as the owner and that pureIntegration shall have the right, at its own expense, to obtain and to hold in its own name copyrights, patents, registrations or such other protection as may be appropriate to said Inventions and Copyright Work. Employee agrees to provide pureIntegration and its assigns the full, sole and continuing right (without any payments or liabilities to any person) to use the Inventions and Copyright Work and to exercise all rights in such Inventions and Copyright Work as may be reserved in an owner or author (including, without limitation, the right to publish, perform, reproduce and distribute) throughout the world any or all portions of the material, either as a complete unit or in segments, in any way pureIntegration sees fit and for any purpose whatsoever. Upon request, Employee shall insert a proper statutory copyright notice at an appropriate location on copyrightable material, and on all portions and on all related items which may be subject to copyright protection, which copyright notice shall specify pureIntegration (or its assigns) as the sole copyright owner. Employee further agrees to execute all such additional documents including, without limitation, copyright or patent applications, as pureIntegration (or its assigns) may reasonably require to perfect and protect its rights referred to herein including, if necessary, an assignment which assigns pureIntegration whatever Employee rights which may exist in the Inventions and Copyright Work. The provisions contained in this Subsection 2b may only be varied by written permission granted by the CEO of pureIntegration.

- c. Any provision herein which provides that the Employee shall assign, or offer to assign, any rights held by Employee in any Invention or Copyright Work shall not apply to an Invention or Copyright Work that the Employee developed entirely on his or her own time without use of pureIntegration's equipment, supplies, facilities, trade secret information or Corporate Information except for those Inventions or Copyright Works that either (1) relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice or expression to pureIntegration's business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of pureIntegration; or (2) result from any work performed by the Employee for pureIntegration.
- d. Employee agrees that pureIntegration possesses other proprietary and intellectual property rights, including, without limitation, copyright, patent, trademark and trade secret rights, in all Corporate Information as defined in Section 3a below, and in the written work product of pureIntegration, both of which will subsist regardless of the terms of this Agreement. Employee further agrees that all tangible work products of pureIntegration may not be copied, modified, reformatted or paraphrased at any time without the prior written permission of pureIntegration. Employee agrees that any unauthorized use of work product or otherwise protected intellectual property of pureIntegration by Employee will constitute infringement of the proprietary and intellectual property rights of pureIntegration and a breach of this agreement. Employee acknowledges that pureIntegration Corporate Information, work product or otherwise protected intellectual property constitutes unique, valuable and special property of pureIntegration, and that any unauthorized use or disclosure by Employee may cause irreparable injury and damage to pureIntegration.

3. Confidentiality.

- a. Definition of Corporate Information: "Corporate Information" is defined to include, but is not limited to, pureIntegration's past, present or future: (1) products, processes, formulae, patterns, compilations, programs, devices, methods, procedures, techniques, inventions, software, and improvements thereto; (2) research and development activities; (3) designs and technical data; (4) marketing or other business development activities or strategies, including, without limitation, prospective or actual bids or proposals, pricing structure and information and financial information, methods and systems used in obtaining sales and providing services; (5) identity of or proprietary information regarding pureIntegration clients, partners, suppliers or joint ventures; or (6) other administrative, management, planning, financial, marketing, purchasing, manufacturing or business development activities; provided, however, that Corporate Information shall not include information which at the time of disclosure is generally known in the business and industry in which pureIntegration is engaged. Affiliates of pureIntegration shall be third party beneficiaries of Employee's obligations under this Section.
- b. Agreement to Preserve Confidentiality. Employee covenants and agrees that while a pureIntegration employee and following termination of that employment (for whatever reason), all Corporate Information shall be regarded as confidential, proprietary, and in the nature of trade secrets, and Employee agrees not to disclose any Corporate Information to any person, business or entity or use any Corporate Information for Employee's own benefit or for the benefit of any other person or in any way that would be detrimental to the business of pureIntegration. As to any Corporate Information either disclosed by pureIntegration to Employee, or developed by Employee, prior to the effective date of this Agreement and in connection with Employee's employment with pureIntegration, Employee agrees that all such disclosed and developed information shall be deemed to be pureIntegration Corporate Information subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. As a result of Employee's employment by pureIntegration, Employee may also from time to time have access to, or knowledge of, confidential business information or trade secrets of third parties, including, without limitation, clients, partners, suppliers and joint ventures of pureIntegration or its affiliates. Employee shall preserve and protect the confidentiality of such third party confidential business information and trade secrets to the same extent, and on the same basis, as pureIntegration's Corporate Information. Employee will not, at any time during Employee's employment with pureIntegration, make any unauthorized disclosure of such confidential business information or trade secrets of any such third party or make any use thereof other than as authorized in connection with carrying out his/her employment responsibilities hereunder. In any event, any such information developed by Employee while employed by pureIntegration but prior to the effective date of this Agreement shall nonetheless be deemed to be part of the Corporate Information subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Employee understands that without this Agreement, Employee would be denied access to Corporate Information, and that a violation of these provisions constitutes Cause for termination of Employee's employment.

- c. Return of Property. Upon termination of employment or at any other earlier time which pureIntegration may designate, Employee agrees to promptly return all pureIntegration and client documents and Corporate Information and any other pureIntegration or client property in Employee's possession or control, including all copies (including but not limited to electronic copies) of the same. pureIntegration's property includes, but is not limited to, documents prepared or obtained at the direction or request of pureIntegration, documents prepared or obtained during the normal course of business, documents prepared or obtained at the expense of pureIntegration or using pureIntegration resources (e.g. documents downloaded from the Internet using pureIntegration equipment or copied using pureIntegration copying facilities), documents which are trade secrets, documents Employee prepared or obtained during working hours and documents prepared or obtained to fulfill a client or customer request made to pureIntegration or its employees and/or consultants.

4. Agreement on Unfair Competition.

- a. Duty of Loyalty and Good Faith. Employee understands and agrees that during his employment with pureIntegration, Employee owes pureIntegration fiduciary duties of good faith and loyalty.
- b. Acknowledgment of the Business of pureIntegration. Employee understands and agrees that pureIntegration is a consulting company specializing in Management Consulting, IT Systems Development Life Cycle Support and IT Outsourcing (collectively referred to as "pureIntegration's Business").
- c. Business Opportunities. All business opportunities presented to Employee during his employment with pureIntegration (1) by reason of Employee's employment by pureIntegration, or (2) which relate to or concern pureIntegration's Business, shall be owned by and belong exclusively to pureIntegration, and Employee shall have no personal interest or rights therein or thereto. Employee shall promptly disclose any such business opportunity to pureIntegration and, if necessary, execute and deliver to pureIntegration, without additional compensation, such instruments as pureIntegration may require to evidence ownership of any such business opportunity.
- d. Non-Raiding. During the Protected Period, Employee shall not directly or indirectly, solicit, hire or engage any Protected Employee in a position with a Competitive Business in which the Protected Employee provides services that are the same as or similar to those that the Protected Employee provided to pureIntegration within the preceding twelve months.
- e. Non-Solicitation. During the Protected Period, Employee shall not, on behalf of himself or a Competitive Business, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit or communicate with a Client for the purpose of providing Protected Services to such Client, or (b) sell, attempt to sell, provide, or attempt to provide Protected Services to a Client. The prohibited conduct under this Section 4(e) shall include, without limitation, providing Protected Services directly to a Client, whether as an employee, independent contractor, or consultant for the Client.

f. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Client" shall be defined as any person, business, or entity who, within the two years immediately preceding the termination Employee's employment, (1) purchased or received services from pureIntegration, as a result of the Employee's efforts in the scope of his employment; (2) received a bid or proposal for the provision of services from pureIntegration, prepared by Employee or as a result of the Employee's efforts in the scope of his employment or (3) was targeted by Employee, on behalf of pureIntegration, as the subject of specific, active, and ongoing business development efforts. If Employee, on behalf of pureIntegration, sold or provided services, submitted a bid or proposal for services to, or directed business development efforts to a division, agency, department, office, or other like smaller identifiable post within a customer (a "Division") and if that Division was principally responsible for deciding to obtain those products or services from pureIntegration, then that Division, and not the larger entity, shall be the Client.

(ii) "Competitive Business" shall be defined as any person or entity, other than pureIntegration, in the business of providing Protected Services, which operates in any town, city, or county in which the Company operates.

(iii) "Protected Period" shall be defined as the period of time during Employee's employment with pureIntegration and the twelve (12) months immediately following any termination of Employee's employment. If a court of competent jurisdiction enters a final order enforcing Paragraphs 4(d) and/or 4(e) of this Agreement, then the Period of Protection shall also include the twelve (12) months immediately following the entry of that final order.

(iv) "Protected Employee": means any pureIntegration employee who was employed at any time during Employee's employment with pureIntegration, or during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding any termination of the Employee's employment, whichever is shorter.

(v) "Protected Services" means consulting services that are the same as or substantially similar to the consulting services that Employee, in the scope of his employment with pureIntegration, sold, attempted to sell, provided, or attempted to provide at any time during the two years immediately preceding any termination of Employee's employment.

g. Reasonableness. Employee recognizes that the limitations set forth in this Section 4 permit Employee to continue Employee's chosen career in the same geographic area without any interruption, while protecting the legitimate business interests of pureIntegration in its client, prospective client and employee relationships, and Employee agrees that the above restrictions are reasonable, including the short length of time and the narrow and specific area of business in which competition is limited as to those clients, accounts and employees. Employee also agrees that these limitations are reasonable given the highly competitive and sensitive nature of the business pureIntegration engages in and are required for the protection of pureIntegration based upon numerous factors including the knowledge and information to which Employee will have access during Employee's employment with pureIntegration. Employee also agrees that in addition to any other remedies, including an action for damages, pureIntegration also may obtain injunctive relief against Employee. If pureIntegration seeks enforcement based upon a breach of this Agreement and prevails in that effort, then Employee shall be responsible for reimbursing pureIntegration for its reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in the litigation.

5. Separate Agreement. The terms and limitations contained in this Agreement form a separate and independent Agreement which survives termination of Employee's employment. Without these restrictions, pureIntegration is unwilling to permit, or continue to provide Employee, access to Corporate Information and to current and prospective pureIntegration clients, partners, suppliers and joint ventures.

6. Amendments and Termination; Entire Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended or terminated except by a writing executed by all of the parties hereto. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of pureIntegration and Employee and supersedes all prior understandings and agreements, whether oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

7. Employment at-Will. This Agreement does not alter Employee's at-will employment status, and Employee understands that his/her employment may be terminated at any time, with or without cause and with or without notice.

8. No Waiver. No waiver by pureIntegration or Employee of a right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other right or remedy or of any subsequent right or remedy of the same kind. Further, no waiver by pureIntegration shall be deemed effective or enforceable against pureIntegration unless it is set forth in a written acknowledgement signed by the CEO of pureIntegration.

9. Severability and Savings Provision. All provisions of this Agreement shall be applicable only to the extent that they do not violate any applicable law, and are intended to be limited to the extent necessary so that they will not render this Agreement invalid, illegal or unenforceable under any applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement or any application thereof shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of other provisions of this Agreement or of any other application of such provision shall in no way be affected thereby.

10. Cumulative Remedies. The rights and remedies of pureIntegration, whether pursuant to this Agreement or in accordance with law, shall be construed as cumulative, and the exercise of any right or remedy shall constitute neither a bar to the exercise of nor the waiver of any other right or remedy.

11. Construction and Usage. The paragraph captions are for reference only and shall not be deemed to govern, limit, modify or in any other manner affect the scope, meaning or intent of the provisions themselves. In this Agreement, where the context may require, the singular and plural numbers and the neuter, masculine and feminine genders shall each be deemed to include the others. Further, in this Agreement, where the context may require, the word "person" shall be deemed to include both natural persons and any corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, trust, consultancy, firm or other entity and any reference to any of these entities shall each be deemed to include the others.

12. Choice of Law, Forum and Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without regard to its conflict of laws provisions. The parties hereto agree to personal jurisdiction in the Commonwealth of Virginia and that the exclusive venue for any dispute shall be the appropriate state court in Fairfax County, Virginia (the Fairfax County Circuit Court or the Fairfax County General District Court) or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (Alexandria Division), as may be appropriate. In the event that there is no other manner of service, Employee hereby appoints the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

By signing below, both parties agree to be bound by this Agreement as of the date of their signatures and per its terms.
